A: There is a way to filter it: Get YouTube Data API V3 using You'll get a JSON response that includes many items. For each item you can use the listItems.snippet.title. I guess this is what you need. You'll get all the things you need to get text from all the titles, assuming that they are all in the same language. You can use the regex.* to get all the titles by black metal bands. Unfortunately you have to mess around in the JSON file, but hey, it's free. EDIT: Based on the comments: Get the file: Pay attention to the access_token and the id parameter. Get the title of the video/playlist using the id parameter: You can play around with the parameters to see how they work. A: I'll post my solution here as a reference because it's a very handy website. It provides you with all the images of your desired song/artist/whatever. (I couldn't find an official English version, so I have no idea how to translate it to English for

Daemon is a .Reviews (3) Nappy rash 4 stars Anonymous User Posted on 27-08-2018 I really enjoyed this product. My son was at a birthday party recently, and I used this whilst his nappy was in the washing machine. I left the laundry to finish whilst the baby had a quiet play. Upon return, the nappy was firmly stuck to the dryer drum - so I put my son on the sofa to play with his toys whilst I tried to free it. I managed to free it, not by pulling, but by pushing on it, to get it further up the drum. The dryer would not stop when the dry cycle was completed, so I had to remove the lid in order to get the nappy off. This quickly became a messy job, as the nappy was stuck to the drum and the mother now needed to get her toddler (who was playing) off the sofa to clean it up. I tried using wet wipes to clean it up, but they just didn't work. This product provided such a useful solution, as my laundry was left in a timely manner and my little one was able to have some fresh air. Fantastic product! 5 stars Adeelah Posted on 23-11-2016 We have only used this product for a week but it has been the answer to all
