HyperMotion Technology enables realistic celebrations, animation blends, ball physics and new camera effects including boosted Ultra Pixels. Playmaker Camera now uses the game's ETA (exact time of arrival) to determine the player where the ball is in order to get closer to the action and boost its performance. With the new developed Enhanced Ball Physics, players can influence and control how the ball moves when it's in-play. FIFA Ultimate Team has been completely reworked to reflect a new progression. "Premier League Gold Pack" has been added, with 18 new cards like Alexis Sanchez and Eden Hazard. Players can also now be found in the "World Cup '94" pack. "World Cup 94" and "World Cup 1998" were added to Ultimate Team, with six and five cards respectively. The Team of the Week system has been tweaked for Ultimate Team, with a new board unlocking new features. The cards in the Team of the Week will vary by day of the week and players can set it up so that matches played on weekends unlock a card for the next week. As new options have been added to Training, new badges and skill items have been added to the Stadium Experience. Complete sections of the Stadium Experience in one day will now unlock the corresponding badge. Players can also earn Skill items by tackling certain opponents and completing matches. The Autograph panel has been improved for Ultimate Team. Players can now search for the 50 best players in the world in one go, ranking them in different levels. Players can also view the players that are important to them in FUT. New emotes have been added, including a nodding emote, and the ability for players to create their own custom emotes through FUT Emojis, using items in their collection. New Friendlies mode has been introduced, which can be played solo against an AI team, online matches and in custom matches. Players will now have access to a new feature where they can perform the Player Creator, allowing them to create their own custom player with their own traits. The Daily Challenge system has been revamped. Players can select a challenge from 25 challenges, of which they can select the difficulty, the number of rounds, number of players, duration and more. Players can also compete in live challenges each day. A new, highly requested mode "Defeat your Neighbours" is being introduced in the Expanded

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Includes a Microtransaction store that allows players to purchase in-game items with real money
- Next-generation Player Intelligence highlights the intelligent decisions you make as a player as well as the continuous environmental, contextual and physical effects they generate.
- Game-changing features includes playmaker AI and "F1" movement control
- New dynamic first-pass system which aids the game's ball control system
- Full player animations and realistic post-match celebrations
- New squad building system and player traits

Key improvements

- FIFA 22 includes a never-before-available set of "Hyper-Motion" physics which revolutionise the way players move on the pitch

- FIFA 22 introduces FreeKicks, a new level of unpredictability to the game, with opportunities both on and off the ball. The player-to-player qualities between opposing defenders, midfielders and forwards is now greatly heightened, resulting in more exciting, unpredictable and unpredictable and more difficult to predict, free kicks
 - Finale-proven “FIFA Interactive Referee” now adds an additional touch of realism to the most important decisions; decisions such as excess of caution, fouls, consecutive bookings, and red and yellow cards. The more the referee reacts, the more multiple and varied the series of possible outcomes will be
 - Tackling is deeper, more confident and more violent. Furthermore, players can and will repeatedly attempt to lure the opposition into a physical exchange, so defenders must be aware of their surroundings
