Tardy For 15th Vinyl & Tape Reviews Led Zeppelin IV El-T released the vinyl edition of this record back in 1992. In 1998, to celebrate the band's 30th Anniversary, Rhino also released a remastered white label version of the record. By 2006, the original El-T reissue of Led Zeppelin IV was ranked in CBS' top 500 titles in a record industry magazine. Nobody's Fault But Mine This last track on Led Zeppelin IV is in the style of a Judas Priest number. The lyrics are exceedingly simple, a three-liner on the first side and a four-liner on the second side. One can appreciate that when songs became that simple and straightforward to listen to, there was a sense of novelty and creativity in front of the delightfully
